

Control Systems

pāco manufacturing® offers state-of-the-art Control Systems to operate our equipment as well as stand-alone designs per your requirements. Our engineers are well versed in the latest hardware technology and can design a system to meet your needs. We also provide software design and implementation for motion control and equipment operation. From basic controls to complex systems, we can provide a solution that is easy to maintain and operate.

Our Services Include:

- Control Design
- Software Design
- Project Management
- Control Panel Fabrication & Assembly
- Control Panel Test
- Software Installation & Test
- Documentation